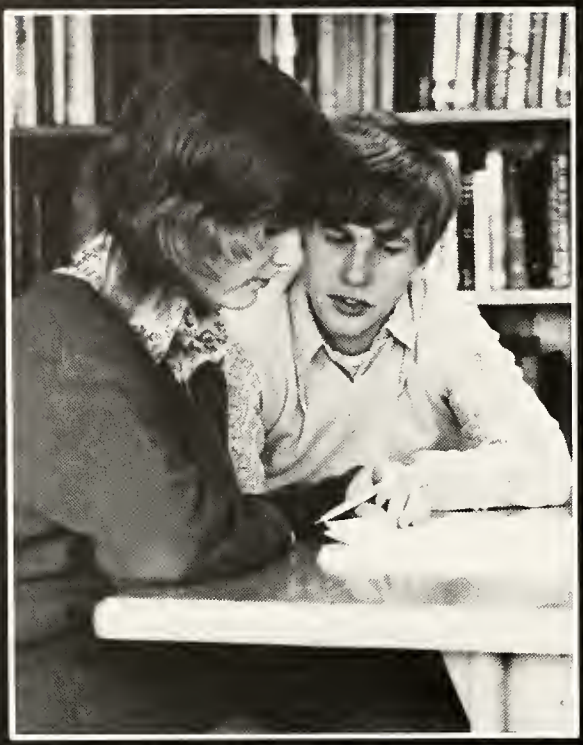
To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven.



A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted

A time to kill, and time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silent and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace.

Spanish

"Hey Mr. Peachy, would you run that by me one more time. If you're gonna talk that fast I can't understand."
"Yo no comprendo ingles, habla en espanol."
"But I can't say it in Spanish!"

"Mr. Peachey, can we sing?"
"In Spanish please."
"Yeah, we want to sing in Spanish."

"Class, now we'll discuss this conversation in Spanish." Five minutes of silence.

In the midst of verb changing, misunderstandings, another verb change before learning the first one, Spanish is another form of communication and a new experience with another culture.

Social Studies

Social Studies . . . the study of past and present, providing a broader store of knowledge for understanding the world around us . . . studying the lives of others and the decisions they made, and where they ended up, making us aware of what our decisions may lead to . . . a study of where our world is today, learning how to solve social problems and applying this knowledge to our lives today.

First period bookkeeping—everyone trying to get Marsha's attention by shouting and waving arms so she can maybe help you understand a little better.

Typing—fg space ff space gg space ffgg space fg space. Return and start over again.

At times it's very frustrating trying to go fast and hit the right letters while keeping your eyes on your book. Sometimes you feel like quitting but then you try again, threatening Marsha that one more day is enough, but each day you keep coming back.

Art

Art is many ideas to various individuals. To some, it portrays majestic statues and ancient masterpieces. To some, art is the expression of the inner self.

But to others, art is stepping on a $7.00 painting knife, sitting on wet paint with new birthday clothes on or spilling turpentine over a just completed original. But looking back over the many tragedies, we realize that we were totally enlightened by it all.

A Cappella Chorus

40 different things to 40 different people.

we work hard during second period
our voices cracking on high F's
often flatting songs,
having 3 basses for every tenor.

for some, these practices are endured for the opportunity of giving spring programs (and with this the fear of falling off the risers or forgetting the words of a song)
or the excitement of putting on Amahl and reliving it weeks later or singing Elijah
or getting out of school to go to the music festival.

Administration

Education is the development of a person. It is the formulating of a set of values which determine the characteristics of a person. Education cannot be measured by excellence in grades or scores on achievment tests; nor is it a matter of conforming to society.

For the Christian it is being God's kind of person.

Reflector

Making the Reflector included:

"dumb" mistakes
deep discussions
getting to really know each other countless dinners at Burger Chef, Dairy Queen and McDonalds funburger toys
a crumby typewriter with no backspacer never having enough news articles discouraging moments
long hours
empty feelings

And into the Reflector went a lot of hard work by everyone on the staff. Good or bad, it was a part of us all.

Witmarsum

Sighs are heard. "We can't find any pictures except of junior girls!" Our eyes sting from looking at all the tiny pictures. "Where's the eraser?" Amazing how so many things can get lost in an office this small! "When's the deadline?" . . . "Yesterday." . . . "Oh . . ." "Can we cut his head off to make it fit?"

We dream of sleep, free time, and eating, but ahead of us loom mountains of layouts, glue bottles, and copy sheets, so we cry a little, laugh at ourselves a little, and get back to work.

ICYE

Nobody at Bethany needs to be told that people only have one thing in common and ironically that is how they differ from each other. Maybe, however, that isn't realized until you meet another person from a different nation.

The aim of ICYE is to promote the understanding between the youth of different nations in a hope of bridging the differences between people so that we can all grow closer together in the spirit of love and peace.

How did I help that purpose? How does Bethany fit into that plan? You gave the hosts and I left all that I ever had behind –just for an aim! But it was not just any aim, it was a very important Christian philosophy that I believe in and that is integrated into the spirit of Bethany.

Did we succeed? For me, most certainly and in more than learning to love a stranger because I found a different person emerging from myself amongst all that frustration, confusion, helplessness, laughter, happiness and unique friendship. A person who has a lot more to offer than before I came to Bethany. For people at Bethany, each individual has a different response so you must consider that for yourself. All I can hope is that somehow even a little change has happened in each person.

Thank you to all of you at Bethany for giving me something that I will never forget.

Graduation

"Pomp and Circumstance" begins,
Ellen and Paul lead the way down the aisle.
A valedictorian speech by Bob
and a talk by John Drescher,
Mr. Hooley hands out diplomas,
then it's all over.
The peak we've all strived towards for twelve years.
Now that we have reached our goal,
we are eager to move on,
ready to conquer the next foe
that crosses our path.
But yet we are sad to leave behind the familiar and reach out to the unknown.

weeks and weeks of planning . . . hushed plans about the theme and how to decorate the gym . . . collecting plants for the garden from Mr. Bauer's library and all over Goshen . . . coming in during study halls to paint the scenery . . . hoping it doesn't look too cheap . . . working till 11:00 the night before to put up the crepe paper sky and tape the ivy to the walls . . . finally it does actually look like a Roman courtyard . . . "what if the seniors think it's dumb?" . . . 6:30 Friday night comes . . . being served by sophomores attired as Roman slaves . . . watching a three-reel movie "Hotel" . . . leaving about midnight . . . juniors staying to transform the courtyard back into a gym . . . then hearing Dex, Don, and John play their guitars . . . going miniature golfing . . . and it's all over for another year.

the end of this we'd greet.

Chapel

Chapel comes at the time of day when one is not yet fully awake. Therefore, chapel has a critical function in each student's day—either it wakes him up and motivates him, or puts him to sleep. We have had both kinds of chapels this year, but in the end it is the student that makes a chapel a waste of time or gives it meaning.

Senior Trip

After many hours of hard work and an extra forty bucks we were finally able to have a Senior Trip! We departed on a Sunday afternoon. Not knowing what lay ahead, everyone was in a good mood and excited. Monday morning we were delayed about an hour because our bus driver decided to pick on an Oldsmobile and he did a good job of it. After two days of getting lost in New York subways and being rushed from building to building, it was time for Washington D.C. Up to this time it had rained every day and continues to do so. We found out that there are quite a few buildings in our capital and we watched our feet grow. On Friday we finally returned home weary and with our skin still wrinkled from the rain, but we were happy.

Baseball

Baseball is fun because the school year is almost over, the pressure is off, and that big beautiful sun is finally beating down warmly again after the long winter. When baseball season comes around, you can hear the clatter of spikes in the locker room, the crack of ball and bat, the infield chatter. You can see strike-out victims throwing their bats, fielders diving for balls, coaches disguising their signals from the other team (and sometimes from their own team as well). And you can feel the hot sun, the sharp pain of the ball hitting the palm of your glove, or the wonderful feeling that comes from hitting the ball with the fat part of your bat. But, mainly, you can feel baseball.

Bob Steury

Mr. Peachey

Soccer

To the players, soccer was:

dreading windsprints, and trying to talk Mr. Bodiker into letting us scrimmage instead.
beating Culver Military 2-1 and 5-1 and then losing to them in the tourney on penalty kicks.
kicking balls on the roof so Mr. Bodiker would get to chase them.
having a defense that held opponents to only .583 goals per game, including 8 shut outs.
trying not to break training rules, some more successfully than others.
never turning in your health form that was supposed to be so "important."
having six out of eleven starters make the two All-Conference teams.
always hoping to play New Albany and never getting to.
playing together as a team and really loving it.

To the fans, soccer was:

trying to find a different ride home so you could stay for the game.
getting hit in the head by a pass that didn't quite make it.
huddling together in a blanket trying to keep warm. while watching 22 guys running around half naked.
watching Mr. Bodiker pacing in front of the bench trying to decide if practices were doing anything.

The volleyball season started with new uniforms that arrived one hour before. Inspired, the team ran out to win their first game. This set the stage for the rest of the season. Winning every game except for Elkhart Central the Varsity finished the season with a 10-1 record—the best ever for the Squaws. With Pert's coaching the team strived to play as a team and succeeded a good part of the time.

Juniors

but being a junior is not just a step on the way to an end.
it's another year of living and laughing
and learning
and loving and hurting
and doubting
and growing.

a year that hasn't happened
before,
and won't happen
again.

this year's junior is last year's sophomore on his way to becoming next year's senior.
not the first
nor the last.
but there is hope in being the biggest and probably the best (don't tell anyone Mr. Hollinger said that).

sometimes it's frustrating—
all those years of toil and drudgery behind you and the end still seems so distant.
sometimes awesome—
you're not quite ready for the end that seems so near.

Sophomores

Once upon a time there were forty-four sophomores in the land of Bethany. They were all united until one day someone expressed a different idea. Some of them laughed, others cried, and some became very angry. They became divided. A war had begun. Some were killed and many wounded, and still the fighting went on. Finally the battle and the people became so confused they couldn't remember what they were fighting for, so they once again united. Now they respect each other a little more and the ideas that each have.

Freshmen

we came, "shy and timid"– (well, once in a while we were shy!) we wondered how we'd fit in– if, indeed, we would fit in;
we were thrown together, all our little cliques, into one big group–Freshmen.
as we grew closer, we teased, laughed, argued, and worked (?)– together.
we are Freshmen
  and we love it!

If you study with us, you'll travel, study, serve overseas.

You go to a "young developing" country—like Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Honduras, Belize (formerly British Honduras), Jamaica, Haiti.

For seven weeks you study, observe, read, travel.

Then for seven weeks you join a community betterment project. You might teach. Be an aid in a rural clinic. Help build a school. Teach an adult how to read.

You live with a family. Speak the language with them. Take in social events.

Your experience overseas is called the 14-week Study-Service Trimester. And you receive credit toward graduation.

WHAT MAKES EMC TICK?

* A young, qualified and committed faculty with a wide background of training and experience.
* Integrative, team-taught interdisciplinary studies courses basic to the curriculum help students "put things together" in the context of the Christian view of man in history.
* Regular chapel services that expose broad dimensions of life in the church.
* Minority and international students who enrich the campus experience. Plus cross-cultural seminars and study abroad programs.
* A unique student body (Mennonite and other denominations and groups) interacting and growing within the EMC framework of educating for wholeness as informed disciples.

ISN'T IT TIME YOU INVESTIGATED EMC?

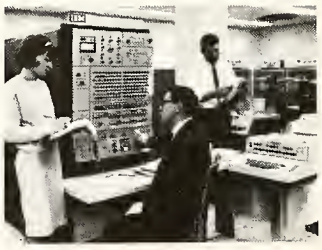
AN OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE

An opportunity to serve awaits industrious young men and women at Northern Indiana Public Service Company. As one of the top gas and electric distribution utilities in the United States, NIPSCO is constantly looking for new processes and methods of efficient operation. These include atomic power generation, extra high voltage transmission, underground electric distribution, computerized system planning, underground storage of natural gas, community analyses and electronic data processing.



Ready to grow with a growing company?

IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF GROWTH

NIPSCO is one of the highest-paying utilities in the State of Indiana. Its attractive employe benefit package—tuition refund plan, vacations, holidays, life insurance, comprehensive medical insurance, pensions, etc.—provides an atmosphere for individual growth. Fifteen leading colleges and universities are strategically located throughout its service area with others available in the greater Chicago area. Drop in. We'll be glad to talk jobs with you.

"Congratulations Class of 74"

"This is the beginning of a new day. God has given you this day to use as you will. You can waste it — or use it for good, but what you do today is important, because you are exchanging a day of your life for it! When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever, leaving in its place something that you have traded for it. May it be gain, and not loss; good, and not evil; success, and not failure; in order that you shall not regret the price you have paid for it."
Best Wishes for a Good Life.

Sincerely,
V.H. Steury, President
